Giving Back

We are an independent charity, and all profits are reinvested to continue our work to celebrate Florence's legacy and nurses today.

Receptions

The museum can be exclusively hired for a drink's reception. Guests can enjoy drinks and canapes alongside the wonderful experience of exploring Florence Nightingale's collection and story. The museum also offers private guided tours to entertain your guests.

If you are looking for a unique central London location the Florence Nightingale Museum provides a perfect setting to entertain guests.

We work with Guys & St. Thomas' highly experienced hospitality and caterer team.

This tour is led by a costumed actor dressed as Florence Nightingale or Mary Seacole. Nightingale/Seacole will take the group through the museum, talking about her life and pointing out significant objects. The tour will last between 25-30 minutes, and then we recommend allowing at least another 30 minutes for the group to look around on their own.
£130.00

Performative Florence Nightingale or Mary Seacole Talk - £140.00

A costumed actor dressed as Florence Nightingale or Mary Seacole will then talk about her life and interact with the audience. The talk lasts approximately 30 minutes, and we recommend allowing at least another 30 minutes for the group to explore the museum.

Object Handling Session £60.00

This handling session will be conducted by a member of staff. Guest will have the ability to learn about different areas in history, while getting to hold and interact with artifacts from the museum's handling collection.

Important Information

Insurance

If you are hiring the museum on behalf of a company or organisation, you must have your own public liability insurance in place to cover all eventualities liable during the hire period. You will be required to provide the museum with a copy of this insurance policy prior to the hire. If you are hiring the museum as an individual person, you do not need to provide your own insurance.

Facilities

The Museum is fully wheelchair accessible and has a wheelchair accessible toilet. We welcome guide, hearing and assistance dogs in all areas of the museum. Large print of highlights of the collection are available on request. A cloakroom and baby changing facilities are also available.

Getting here

The Museum is a short walk from Waterloo tube/station and Westminster tube. We are located in the grounds of St Thomas' Hospital (on the corner of Westminster Bridge and Lambeth Palace Road) and you can reach us via the pavement to the hospital car park level.

Parking

Please note that there is no parking available onsite. Other paid parking is available at:

Britannia Parking Upper Marsh, London SE1 7EL

London Waterloo Station Car Park Station Approach Rd, London SE1 8SW

Q-Park Westminster Great College St, London SW1P 3RX

We do have availability upon request for parking to drop off equipment.

Your support helps us to fund everything that we do!
Which includes:

- Maintaining the largest collection of Florence Nightingale artifacts
- Sharing the story of Florence Nightingale and of all nurse's past, present, and future with London and beyond
- Promoting contributions to healthcare, statistics, activism, and social reforms
- Creating innovative and engaging learning experiences for people of all ages and backgrounds

Catering

Thank you for choosing the Florence Nightingale Museum to host your event. As a registered charity all proceeds from your venue hire help to support our museum, its mission, and collection for generations to come.
